Divided into III. parts.....fol. Lond. 1617

> "Moryson," says Dr. Drake, "is a sober-minded veracious traveller, and that part of his book which relates to the manners and customs of England and Scotland is particularly interesting." "He began his travels" relates Fuller, "May 1st, 1591, over a great part of Christendome, and no small share of Turkey, even to Jerusalem, and afterwards printed his observations in a large book, which, for the truth thereof, is in good reputation, for of so great a traveller, he had nothing of a traveller in him, as to stretch in his reports."

Mower (C. D.) How to build a Motor Launch. [Plates.].....4to. New York, 1901

Mowing-Devil, The: or, Strange News out of Hartfordshire. Being a true relation of a Farmer, who bargaining with a poor Mower, about the cutting down three half acres of oats; upon the Mower's asking too much, the Farmer swore, that the Devil should mow it, rather than he: and so it fell out, that that very night, the crop of oats shew'd as if it had been all of a flame: but next morning appear'd so neatly mow'd by the Devil, or some infernal spirit, that no mortal man was able to do the like. Also, how the said oats ly now in the field, and the owner has not power to fetch them away. Licensed, August 22th, 1678...Reprinted: J. Baker, Great Russell Street. 4to. Lond. n.d.

On the fly leaf is written: "Only nine taken off on India paper from the original in possession of my Father." Bound up at the end of the volume is a reproduction by the same printer of the following tract:—The Downefall of temporizing Poets, unlicenst Printers, upstart Booksellers, trotting Mercuries, and brawling Hawkers. Being a very pleasant Dialogue between Light-foot, the Mercury, and Suck-bottle, the Hawker, Red-nose the Poet being moderator between them; the corruptions of all which by their conference is plainly described. Printed merrily and may be read unhappily betwixt Hawke and Bussard. 1641. Containing bookplates of Henry Freeling and Henry Harris.

Mytton (John, eccentric sportsman, 1796-1834.) The Life of John Mytton, Esq., of Halston, Shropshire, etc., with his hunting, racing, shooting, driving, and extravagant exploits, by Nimrod [C. J. Apperley.] With numerous [coloured] illustrations by H. Alken and T. J. Rawlins. New edit., revised and enlarged, with a notice of Nimrod. 8vo. Lond. 1877

Inserted is an original broadside address to the Freeholders of Shropshire, signed by J. Mytton, and dated March 3. 1831. In asking them to return him to Parliament he says, "Your individual suffrages I shall not seek. Let them come forth as the stream of the Niger, unknown in its source, but still bearing the bark in safety to the ocean."
